To the Honorable R. S. Johnston Esquire Resident Judge John Shanigan and Joseph Masters Esquires his Associates are now composing a Court of Quarter Sessions and for the peace in and for the County of Cambria at Term Ad

We the undersigned Jurors appointed by said Court do report that we gave notice to the Citizens of said County by posting three notices in most public places in Gallatin Township a copy is herewith attached of said notices of time and place of meeting of Jurors And we do further report that having met at time and place designated in said notices and after first being all duly sworn according to law we did view mark and lay out the following for a public Road or high way viz Beginning at Pointers Corner of land of J. J. Cassidy in line of land of said J. J. Cassidy and Bernard Delaney thence by said line of land South twenty six degrees West Eighteen perches to Dry Gap road leading from Chest Spruce to Altoona said curved road being in Gallatin Township which said road is in our opinion necessary to accommodate the public travel And we do further report release of damages on part of Bernard Delaney and said road and we assess no damages to J. J. Cassidy believing said road to be a benefit to his farm all of which is respectfully submitted

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, County of Cambria, } SS.

At a court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the County of Cambria held at Cheshburg in the said County, on the Eighth day of January A. D. 1884, before the Honorable the Judges of the same court: Upon the petition of divers inhabitants of the township of Gallitzin in the said county, setting forth that they labor under inconvenience for want of a road or highway, to lead from from the farm of J. L. Cassidy in said township and intersect the Big Gap Road leading from Cheshburg to Edinboro on the farm of Bernard Delany in said township and therefore praying the court to appoint proper persons to view and lay out the same according to law. The Court upon due consideration had of the premises, do order and appoint, Henry Scanlan SURVEYOR, and William G. Lipe and James M. Dowle

VIEWERS, to view the ground proposed for said road, and if they view the same, and shall agree that there is occasion for such road, they shall proceed to lay out the same, having respect to the shortest distance and the best ground for a road, and in such manner as shall do the least injury to private property, and also be, as far as practicable, agreeable to the desire of the petitioners, and that they make a report of their proceedings to the next Court of Quarter Sessions to be held for said county, stating particularly whether they judge the same necessary for a public or private road, together with a plot or draft thereof, and the courses and distances, and references to the improvements through which it may pass.

BY THE COURT.

Attest:

M. A. Shrock,
Clerk.

NOTE.—"It shall be the duty of all persons appointed in the several counties of this Commonwealth to view and review any public or private road or bridge, if they shall decide in favor of locating said road or bridge, to endeavor to procure from the persons over whose land such location may be made releases from all claims for damages that might arise from the opening of such road or the building of such bridge; and in every case where said viewers shall fail to procure such releases, and it shall appear to them that any damages will be sustained, it shall be their duty to assess the damages and make report thereof signed by a majority of their number, and return the same, together with all releases obtained, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, and the damages so assessed shall be conclusive, or may be subject to appeal, review or modification, as may be provided by existing laws in the different counties of this Commonwealth."

"The persons appointed as aforesaid shall view such ground, and if they shall agree that there is occasion for a road, they shall proceed to lay out the same, having respect to the shortest distance, and the best ground for a road, and in such manner as shall do the least injury to private property, and also be, as far as practicable, agreeable to the desire of the petitioners."

"The viewers, as aforesaid, shall make report, at the next term of said Court, and in the said report shall state particularly: first, who of them were present at the view; second, whether they were severally sworn or affirmed; third, whether the road desired be necessary for a public or private road; they shall also annex and return to the Court a plot or draft thereof, stating the courses and distances, and noting briefly the improvements, through which it may pass; and whenever practicable, the viewers shall lay out the said roads at an elevation not exceeding five degrees, (except at the crossing of ravines and streams) where, by moderate filling and bridging, the declination of the road may be preserved within that limit."
