Order Made out

To the Best of my Judgment I consider the best view on the road from Peter Gardens to Com Jenkins would be one Hundred and fifty Dollars the Cheapest when made fit to travel on My opinion is that the ^{was H. Pommerell} ~~last~~ route may be made with two hundred Dollars less Expence than the first

John Baum

Not having experience in the expence of opening roads I could not make an estimate of the difference of expence in the two routes but am decidedly ~~that~~ the opinion that the last route may be made for considerable less than the first view'd -

Richard J. Pundt

It is decidedly my opinion that the first kept view'd ~~cannot~~ be made as good as the last one and in making them payable the last one can be made one hundred and fifty Dollars cheaper than the first one view'd

David Lukens

It is my opinion the last I set out for would be hundred Dollars cheaper than the first view'd
