To R. S. Johnston Esquire President Judge of Court of Quarter Sessions and for the Peace in and for the County of Canby at March Term 1890

We the undersigned Jurors appointed by said Court do report that first having given due and timely notice of time and place of the meeting of the Jurors by three written and printed notices posted in three public places in Elden Township a copy of said notice is herewith attached And we do further report that having met at time and place designated by said notices and after all being first sworn according to law did view mark and lay out the following for a Public road or high way viz Beginning at a point on the Township road leading from Hartsing Borough to Jacob Glopers where line of land of Jacob Hartman and Adam Miller crosses said road thence by line of said Hartman & Miller South four and one half degrees West fifty six perches to Mouth of Street in Hastings Borough and line of said Borough Which in our opinion is necessary for Public travel in consequence of the erection of the Coal Tipple Erected so close to old Township road of frightening horses and teams while dumping the coal on the Standard Sloop and Tipple in our opinion will be unsafe for travelers to pass we also further report that as this view follows line of land and some ten rods improved on the west Side of line or pier and laid out in town lots and built upon and the balance being unimproved land we report no damages all of which is respectfully submitted

[NEWS PRINT CARROLLTOWN, PA.]

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, } County of Cambria, } ss.

At a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the County of Cambria held at Chesham in the said County, on the 2 day of December A. D. 1889, before the Honorable the Judges of the same Court: Upon the petition of divers inhabitants of the township of Elder in the said County, setting forth that they labor under inconvenience for want of a public road or highway, to lead from a point at or near the residence of Adam Miller in Chesham Township in said County to a point at or near E. Gessler's residence and also in East Hunting Township & County of Penn.

and therefore praying the Court to appoint proper persons to view and lay out the same according to law. The Court upon due consideration had of the premises, do order and appoint Henry Seashore SURVEYOR, and J. R. Cordell & Jacob Kitzpatrick

VIEWERS, to view the ground proposed for said road, and if they view the same, and shall agree that there is occasion for such road, they shall proceed to lay out the same, having respect to the shortest distance and the best ground for a road, and in such manner as shall do the least injury to private property, and also be, as far as practicable, agreeable to the desire of the petitioners, and that they make a report of their proceedings to the next Court of Quarter Sessions to be held for said County, stating particularly whether they judge the same necessary for a public or private road, together with a plot or draft thereof, and the courses and distances, and references to the improvements through which it may pass.

BY THE COURT.

Attest:

H. A. Haenke,
Clerk.

NOTE.—"It shall be the duty of all persons appointed in the several counties of this Commonwealth to view and review any public or private road or bridge, if they shall decide in favor of locating said road or bridge, to endeavor to procure from the persons over whose land such location may be made releases from all claims for damages that might arise from the opening of such road or the building of such bridge; and in every case where said viewers shall fail to procure such releases, and it shall appear to them that any damages will be sustained, it shall be their duty to assess the damages and make report thereof signed by a majority of their number, and return the same, together with all releases obtained, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, and the damages so assessed shall be conclusive, or may be subject to appeal, review or modification, as may be provided by existing laws in the different counties of this Commonwealth."

"The persons appointed as aforesaid shall view such ground, and if they shall agree that there is occasion for a road, they shall proceed to lay out the same, having respect to the shortest distance, and the best ground for a road, and in such manner as shall do the least injury to private property, and also be, as far as practicable, agreeable to the desire of the petitioners."

"The viewers, as aforesaid, shall make report, at the next term of said Court, and in the said report shall state particularly: first, who of them were present at the view; second, whether they were severally sworn or affirmed; third, whether the road desired be necessary for a public or private road; they shall also annex and return to the Court a plot or draft thereof, stating the courses and distances, and noting briefly the improvements through which it may pass; and, whenever practicable, the viewers shall lay out the said roads at an elevation not exceeding five degrees (except at the crossing of ravines and streams), where, by moderate filling and bridging, the declination of the road may be preserved within that limit."
