To the Honorable A. V. Barker, Judge of the Court of quarter sessions of the peace for the County of Cambria.

The Petition of the subscribers respectfully represents: That a (See Road Docket #3, page 46 (1864))

a point near William Egers, to Cresson station, has become useless and unsafe to the traveling public by reason of the P.R.R. Co., having taken about one fourth of a mile of said road and put down side tracks and are now using the same, which part of road your petitioners conceive has become useless, inconvenient and burdensome.

Your petitioners therefore pray the court that viewers be appointed viewed supplied

so vacated to a point on the public road near the dwelling of Frank Brawley in Cresson Township, according to law; and they will ever

To the Honorable A. N. Barker President Judge of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Cambria County Penna.

The petition of J. H. Shoemaker, R. R. Davis and John J. Evans, of said County of Cambria. Respectfully Represent:

That on the 10th day of March 1900, your petitioners were appointed re-viewers by this Honorable Court, to re-view and report to the Court in the proceedings, to review, locate and supply a public road, leading from a point near property of Hewitt's heirs and running to a point near Breason Station on the new A. P. & R. R. in Breason Township, to 70 & Sept. Sessions 1899.

That your petitioners performed their duties as said re-viewers and made report of their proceedings to Court on 4 June 1900.

That said report was confirmed 5 July 1901.

That your petitioners as re-viewers as aforesaid, in their said report, through inadvertency and by a mistake, report and assessed damages to the Hewitt heirs $15.00.

That since said report was confirmed, your petitioners have discovered that the route of said road as laid out by them does not pass through the land of the Hewitt heirs, but does go through land owned by the heirs of Andrew Eger late of Breason Township

Your petitioners therefore pray the Court to make an order and decree amending and correcting the report of said re-viewers, so that the same may read, damages allowed to the heirs of Andrew Eger $15.00, instead of to the Hewitt heirs.

That the route of said road passes through the land of the heirs of Andrew Tager, and not through the land of the Hewitt heirs.

That the said damages of $15.00 have not been paid by the Commissioners of Cambria County to the Hewitt heirs; that on the day of holding said review, your petitioners, were informed the route of said road passed through the land of the Hewitt heirs, that they have since been informed by Wm. Boyle one of the Supervisors that the route of said road passes through the land of said heirs of Andrew Tager, instead of Hewitt heirs.
