Sept. 75

Cambria county, Pa.

At a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the County of Cambria, held at ~~Greensburg~~ Greensburg, the fifteenth day of September, A. D.
1852, before the Honorable George Taylor, and his associates, Judges of the same Court:

Upon the petition of sundry inhabitants of the township of ~~Greenmough~~, in said County, setting forth, "that at the October Sessions, 1845, an order was granted to open a Road to lead from the Johnstown Road, at or near the farm of the heirs of Abraham Hildebrand, dec'd. in said township, to intersect the road leading from Thomas Coyle's Mill, to the turnpike west of William Roberts' place, at or near Frederick Coyle's fence in Sumnerhill township: - That the said road has never been entirely opened, and that it might be located on much better ground, and opened at a less expense, by leaving the first location thereof at or near the Salt-lick Run, and to intersect the same again at or near the land of Josiah Custer in Greenmough township;" and, therefore, praying the Court to appoint suitable men to view and lay out the same, and make report thereof according to law. Whereupon the Court, upon due consideration had of the premises, do order and appoint John Penchoff, John Roberts, John C. Longhough, William Slick, Jr., John J. Horner, and John Headrick, who, after being respectively sworn or affirmed to perform the duties of their appointment with fidelity, are to view the ground for said road, and if they, or any five of them, view the same, and any four of them agree that there is occasion for such road, they shall proceed to lay out the same as agreeably to the desire of the petitioners as may be, having respect to the best ground for a road, and the shortest distance, in such manner as to do the least injury to private property, and shall make report thereof, together with a plot or draft thereof, and the courses and distances, and reference to the improvements, through which it may pass, to the next Court of Quarter Sessions to be held for the said county.

By the court,
R. L. Johnston,
Clerk.
